Rocky Rhoades is a former drug dealer turned chastity advocate. After receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation, Rocky experienced a deep conversion and embraced a new lifestyle. He graduated from Franciscan University of Steubenville with a degree in Philosophy in 2008 and is a speaker with the Goretti Group. Rocky is recently married and was a missionary working with inner city kids through Dirty Vagabond Ministries the past year. He is also a drummer, guitarist, bassist, and co-founder of a catholic clothing company "BIC & SIC." He presents chastity as a challenge to our culture.
